GYRO CLUB OF EDMONTON, GRADUATE SCHOLARSHIP IN AGING, 2015-2016

DESCRIPTION OF AWARD:

The Gyro Club of Edmonton Graduate Scholarships in Aging are made possible by a donation to the Alberta Centre on Aging from the Gyro Club of Edmonton. The purpose of the scholarships is to acknowledge outstanding graduate students whose programs are focused on aging.

VALUE AND DURATION:

Two scholarships of $1200, one at the Masters level and one at the Doctoral level, will be awarded annually.

ELIGIBILITY:

The applicant must be registered in a University of Alberta graduate program (course based or thesis based) focused on aging. The applicant may not hold this scholarship more than once during the tenure of his/her degree program.

SELECTION PROCESS:

Selection of the recipient will be made by a committee appointed by Dean of the Faculty of Rehabilitation Medicine (home of the Alberta Centre on Aging). Selection will be based on academic merit, as indicated by grades and indices of professional development, and commitment to the field of aging.

APPLICATION DEADLINE:

Completed applications must be submitted by 4:00 pm, Friday, December 18th, 2015, to:

Alberta Centre on Aging, University of Alberta
Faculty of Rehabilitation Medicine
3-48 Corbett Hall
Edmonton, Alberta T6G 2G4
Attention: Teresa Lawrence

Late applications will not be accepted.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE:

A complete application will consist of three parts:

1. Completed application form, including:
   a) A brief statement of future plans for pursuing a career in the field of aging;
   b) A listing of aging-related courses completed or in progress, with a brief explanation of the aging-related content;
   c) A description of thesis/dissertation topic (if applicable) and anticipated completion date;
   d) A description of relevant community volunteer work.

2. One copy of the applicant’s curriculum vitae/resume.

3. One set of official university transcripts.
