Gyro Club of Edmonton Undergraduate Scholarship in Aging, 2015-2016

DESCRIPTION OF AWARD:

The Gyro Club of Edmonton Undergraduate Scholarship is made possible by a donation to the Alberta Centre on Aging from the Gyro Club of Edmonton. The purpose of the scholarship is to promote and foster an interest in the study of aging at the undergraduate level.

VALUE AND DURATION:

Two scholarships of $1200 are available to undergraduate students in the 2015-2016 academic year.

ELIGIBILITY:

The applicant must be enrolled as a student in an undergraduate degree program at the University of Alberta at the time of application and must have completed, or be in the process of completing, at least one undergraduate course identified as having an aging focus. The applicant may not hold this scholarship more than once while completing his/her undergraduate degree.

SELECTION PROCESS:

Selection of the recipient will be made by a committee appointed by the Dean of the Faculty of Rehabilitation Medicine (home of the Alberta Centre on Aging). Selection will be based on academic merit and commitment to the field of aging.

APPLICATION DEADLINE:

Completed applications (hard copy) must be submitted by 4:00 pm Friday December 18th, 2015 to:

Alberta Centre on Aging, University of Alberta
Faculty of Rehabilitation Medicine
3-48 Corbett Hall
Edmonton, Alberta T6G 2G4
Attention: Teresa Lawrence

Late applications will not be accepted.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE:

A complete application will consist of three parts:

1. Completed application form, including:
   a) A brief statement of future plans for pursuing a career in the field of aging;
   b) A listing of aging-related courses completed or in progress, with a brief explanation of the aging-related content;
   c) A description of relevant community volunteer work.

2. One copy of the applicant’s curriculum vitae.

3. One set of official university transcripts.
